Qualification for Apprenticeship

An individual who can show that they meet the conditions listed below, after applying for the apprenticeship, will be afforded an oral interview by the AJEATT. If interviewed, the applicant will be listed among those applicants qualified for selection, for a period of two calendar years from the date of interview.

Prior to being indentured, applicants selected from the eligibility list may be required to provide results of a physical examination and will be required to submit to a drug test and obtain negative results.

Please review the following to ensure your application packet is complete, as it will not be accepted without all the requirements listed below.

- Be a minimum of 18 years of age.
- Possess a valid Alaska drivers' license.
- Provide a copy of your high school diploma or state issued GED certificate.
- Show evidence of successful completion of one of the following: one full year of high school algebra with a passing grade of 'C' or higher, one post high school algebra course with a passing grade, a certificate showing completion of the NJATC math course or pass the State of Alaska WorkKeys math test with a '6' or higher.
- Provide your official transcripts for high school and post high School education and training. All GED records must be submitted if applicable.
- Provide a current copy of your driving record.
- Pay a $25.00 application fee to the AJEATT.

If you are a United States Veteran, or an active member of the United States please let our office know when you submit your application.

The AJEATT is committed to equal opportunity for all applicants.
